Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

READ—

The summary of discussion on Subject No. 417 of the Proceedings of the Representative Assembly of 1912, regarding the removal of the toll-gate at Yelwal and the reply of Government that the toll-gate cannot be removed but that persons living in the neighbourhood, who have to pass through it frequently, will be allowed to compound.

No. R. 3-11—L. R. 612-12-2, DATED CAMP MYSORE, 9TH OCTOBER 1913.

ORDER THEREON.—The levy on tolls on provincial roads and bridges is governed by the rules sanctioned by the Government of India and published under the Chief Commissioner's Notification No. 274, dated the 4th November 1876. But there is no provision in these rules similar to Rule 64 of the Rules under the Local Boards Regulation, authorising the Deputy Commissioner to compound with any person for payment of tolls.

2. As it is considered necessary both in the interests of Government and the public to provide for composition of tolls payable in respect of provincial roads and bridges, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja are, in exercise of the powers vested in them by Rule 11 of the Chief Commissioner's Notification cited above, pleased to issue the following subsidiary rule to be read in continuation of the rules contained in the said notification.

"The Deputy Commissioner may compound with any person for a sum to be paid annually or half-yearly in lieu of all such tolls as may, from time to time, be prescribed, to be levied either generally in respect of all provincial roads and bridges or specially in respect of any particular road or bridge, and may issue licenses to any such person in respect of his carriages, carts, or animals, provided always that such composition shall include all the carriages, carts and animals possessed by the person compounding."

3. The order will be published in the Gazette.

K. R. SRINIVASIENGAR,
Secretary to Government,
General and Revenue Departments.

To—The Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, with a request that he will communicate this order to the members who mooted the subject and take such action as he may consider necessary in the matter of compounding the payment of tolls in respect of the Yelwal toll-gate.

The Deputy Commissioners of other Districts.

The Compiler, Mysore Gazette, for publication.
